The Most Holy Trinity

A MESSAGE FROM, FR. JIM BAIRD

I needed to inform you that as of June 14, 2017, I will be leaving Sts. Patrick, Mary and Clare's parishes with schools and the interfaith chapels to begin a new assignment at St. Martin de Porres in Boulder, CO. It is with sadness that I leave, but with thankfulness for my time with you. Please pray for me as I will keep you in my prayers. Fr. Jim

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

It was really just a teeny fender bender. I was pulling out onto the highway from the ramp, and then I wasn't. (Right now you might be thinking much you hate it when drivers give every indication that they are moving out and then don't.)

So, yeah, he bumped into me. Furious, he jumped out of his truck and ran over to my car, screaming in frustration. A few expletives later and he was on his phone, calling the police.

Then I asked him who he thought would get the ticket. "I know," he said. "I'm getting the ticket. I bumped into you." Since neither of our cars was damaged, I asked if he couldn't just call back and say we settled things and were moving on, since we were blocking the ramp. "No," he said, much calmer now, "it's the law. I need to report this."

While the officer collected our information I asked him—by now we were addressing each other by our first names—if I couldn't just tell the officer that I didn't want to see him get a ticket since he was going SO SLOWLY when he hit me that neither of us had any damage and neither of us was hurt. "You would do that?" he asked.

It was so easy. The officer agreed that it was so very minor no ticket need to be given. And the guy who had been screaming at me minutes earlier said, "Kathy, I'm sorry." And two strangers hugged on the ramp and moved on to have, indeed, a very nice day.

Agree with one another. Live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you. What opportunities did you take this week to bring peace to your world?

LA SANTISIMA TRINIDAD

La fe nos enseña que el verdadero Dios es una Trinidad, esto es, que en una sola esencia o naturaleza divina hay tres personas, que son: el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo. Estas tres personas, numéricamente distintas entre sí, son perfectamente iguales, por tener una sola e idéntica naturaleza.

Las tres personas son coeternas. El Padre existe eternamente por la perfección infinita de su substancia y engendra eternamente a su Hijo; el Espíritu Santo procede eternamente del Padre y del Hijo como de un principio único.

Second Vatican Council Document on Education

All men of every race, condition and age, since they enjoy the dignity of a human being, have an inalienable right to an education that is in keeping with their ultimate goal, their ability, their sex, and the culture and tradition of their country, and also in harmony with their fraternal association with other peoples in the fostering of true unity and peace on earth. For a true education aims at the formation of the human person in the pursuit of his ultimate end and of the good of the societies of which, as man, he is a member, and in whose obligations, as an adult, he will share.
