Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Story and You

She's a Mama Bear, this woman. She doesn't know a thing about Moses or the prophets. But she does know that her daughter is tormented by a demon, and that Jesus has the ability to heal her. Do you think hell or heaven is going to stand in her way? Would they stand in your way, if your daughter was desperately ill and Jesus was passing by? I didn't think so. The funny thing, though, is that Jesus is a Mama Bear too. As ferociously as she loves her daughter, Jesus loves her more. Do you think hell or heaven is going to stop him from curing her? Not in a million years. Sometimes, though, he uses a situation to teach the onlookers—say, for example, those disciples who are urging him to get rid of this tiresome mother—a thing or two about faith. It's so amazing that his closest friends, those who have been with him through so much, still don't get that his power and grace are for EVERYONE who believes. Somehow, after all this time, they still want salvation to be just about the Jews.

So Jesus grabs this teaching moment and allows this faith-filled woman, this outsider, to take center stage and engage him in a dialog whose true target is not him at all, but the disciples. He knows a thing about a mother's love. Look who his mother is! He allows her to "teach" him—and those who are listening in— about God's merciful love to ALL people. I love imagining the gobstruck disciples. But mostly I love imagining the mother and Jesus, and the bear hug they must have shared as the demon left her daughter.

In what ways have you been a "mama bear" in praying to Jesus for your loved ones?

Religious Sisters of Mercy seeking generous volunteers

The Sisters are in need of a new water source, and are working with the Town of Gypsum to hook up to city water. The cost is substantial, but could be brought down if we can find volunteers to help run the water line. We are looking for excavators who have experience laying pipe who would be willing to donate their abilities or work for a reduced rate and who could work with the township to help with this project. If you are willing, or know someone who might be, please contact Sister Mary Andrea at 970-524-0752. Thank you in advance for your help!"

ELECTRONIC OFFERTORY

Forgot your checks at Mass, or you are out of cash?

Please consider the convenience of making your monthly offertory donations through electronic banking.

Withdrawals occur automatically on the 5th and or the 20th of the month when you join.

Please contact mbrock@stclareparish.com for more information.

Las hermanas religiosas de la Caridad están buscando voluntarios generosos

Las hermanas están necesitando un nuevo acceso de agua y están trabajando con la ciudad de Gypsum para conectarse al sistema de agua de la ciudad. El costo es muy alto, pero se podría bajar si encontramos voluntarios que nos ayuden a correr la línea de agua.

Estamos buscando personas que trabajen en excavación, que tengan experiencia en instalación de tuberías de agua que estén dispuestos a donar su trabajo, o hacerlo por una tarifa reducida y quien pueda trabajar con el municipio para ayudar con este proyecto.

Si estas dispuestoda estarlo, favor de contactar a la Hermana Mary Andrea al telefono 970-524-0752.
Gracias de antemano for su ayuda.

Second Vatican Council Document on Education

But let teachers recognize that the Catholic school depends upon them almost entirely for the accomplishment of its goals and programs. They should therefore be very carefully prepared so that both in secular and religious knowledge they are equipped with suitable qualifications and also with a pedagogical skill that is in keeping with the findings of the contemporary world. Intimately linked in charity to one another and to their students and endowed with an apostolic spirit, may teachers by their life as much as by their instruction bear witness to Christ, the unique Teacher. Let them work as partners with parents and together with them in every phase of education give due consideration to the difference of sex and the proper ends Divine Providence assigns to each sex in the family and in society. Let them do all they can to stimulate their students to act for themselves and even after graduation to continue to assist them with advice, friendship and by establishing special associations imbued with the true spirit of the Church. The work of these teachers, this sacred synod declares, is in the real sense of the word an apostolate most suited to and necessary for our times and at once a true service offered to society. The Council also reminds Catholic parents of the duty of entrusting their children to Catholic schools wherever and whenever it is possible and of supporting these schools to the best of their ability and of cooperating with them for the education of their children.

Sharing the Gospel For Kids

Jesus met a woman who had amazing faith. She was brave. She was loud. She did not care what anybody else thought. Jesus was the Savior, and she knew he could heal her daughter. Jesus can help you with any problem you have, too. Be brave. Keep asking Jesus for help. God is strong. He can do anything.

Prayer

Jesus, help me to be brave. I know you can do anything.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of the brave woman asking Jesus for help.

Mission for the Week

If you know someone who is sick, be brave and
