The Story and You

I remember exactly where I was the day I realized that those who give their lives in service of the gospel do not live in a magic bubble of security (like Peter may have imagined that Jesus did). I was standing on the campus of the University of Notre Dame, within the magnetic field of the Golden Dome and Touchdown Jesus, talking to my brilliant mentor Barbara Budde (now the director of the Office of Social Concerns for the diocese of Austin, Tx).

Looking back, I can't believe that I was still holding out hope that bad things would never happen to good people. Somehow I had visited the Anne Frank House in Amsterdam, and the Dachau concentration camp in Germany, and never fully grasped that evil can touch the most innocent of people. But when the four North American churchwomen were raped and murdered in El Salvador on December 2, 1980, the last nail was driven into the coffin of my wishful thinking.

"These women stood with the poorest of the poor," I said. Her answer still chills me: "And they were horribly murdered for it."

I suspect that Peter was starting to come out of his magical thinking too. Herod had killed John the Baptist, and now Jesus was prophesying his own torture and death. But Jesus was the Son of God! Wouldn't that give him certain amnesty from the cross? Poor Peter. He would see his Lord crucified. But he would also see him raised! So much happened in Peter's heart between that day and the one, thirty years later, when he himself was stretched upside down on Nero's cross.

In what ways does Peter's courageous martyrdom strengthen you?

Religious Sisters of Mercy seeking generous volunteers

The Sisters are in need of a new water source, and are working with the Town of Gypsum to hook up to city water. The cost is substantial, but could be brought down if we can find volunteers to help run the water line. We are looking for excavators who have experience laying pipe who would be willing to donate their abilities or work for a reduced rate and who could work with the township to help with this project. If you are willing, or know someone who might be, please contact Sister Mary Andrea at 970-524-0752. Thank you in advance for your help!"

Mission Statement

At Saint Clare of Assisi Catholic School, we live, spread, and celebrate the gospel values of Respect, Responsibility, and Reverence in a Catholic environment. We embrace a challenging, safe, and nurturing environment that enriches the heart, mind, and soul for life.

Prayer to Begin a School Year

God of wisdom and might,

we praise you for the wonder of our being,
for mind, body and spirit.

Be with our children as they begin a new school year.

Bless them and their teachers and staff.

Give the strength and grace as their bodies grow;
wisdom and knowledge to their minds

as they search for understanding;

and peace and zeal to their hearts.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Sharing the Gospel For Kids

If it were up to Peter, Jesus would never have died on the cross. Peter did not want to see his dear friend get hurt. It could have been tempting for Jesus to listen to Peter. But Jesus did not come to be happy or comfortable. Jesus came to die on the cross and rise again. He came to take your sins away. Jesus gave up his own life so that your life could be saved. He did it for you.

Prayer

Thank you, Jesus, for giving up your life to save mine.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of Jesus with a big heart pointing to the cross.

Mission for the Week

Every day firemen, policemen and soldiers give up their lives to protect yours. Thank God for them.
