Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Story and You

As Jonah glowered under the tree God graciously raised up for him—and then caused to wither, leaving him with no shelter from the blazing sun—we can imagine his soliloquy:
 I know this isn't very politically correct of me, but is anyone else rolling their eyes at this girly-girl of a God we have? Those Ninevites terrorized the whole nation of Samaria—our own kin! —and now all they have to do is skip breakfast and roll around in sackcloth and ashes and all is forgiven? So what if they “believed God”? I believed God plenty, but I had to do my whole time in the belly of that beast. No special treatment for me.
 I guess you have to be a murdering, marauding Assyrian to get God's compassion. The rest of us have been faithful and righteous our whole lives—and we're the Chosen People, no less! But these filthy, uncircumcised Ninevites get God's whole focus and forgiveness. I'm just going to say it: we need a God who doles out justice instead of all this cry-baby mercy. I wanted to crawl in a hole when I realized that, after just one day, those cowards started weeping and admitting that they were sinners. I had thirty-nine more sermons ready to go, and only got to give one.
 Huh. I must be a great preacher. Just one fire-and-brimstone for me and the whole nation falls to its knees. Come to think of it, even the cattle are fasting! I have a great future as God's right-hand man. The first thing I'll demand is that God cease and desist with the forgiveness already. Make 'em sweat. Speaking of which, what happened to that tree?
Can you think of a time when your resentment of God's mercy created more misery for you?

Teen Mass First Sunday of the month
 Feb 4, March 4

5:30 pm Beaver Creek Chapel

Dinner to follow Mass

Inspired by the life of Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, we invite the teens of the Parishes of the Valley to get involved in their faith with a higher calling. Encouraged to participate in this “special” mass by serving as Extraordinary Minister, lector, cantor, altar server, or simply as an usher by helping with the collection or bringing up the gifts, we hope our young parish members will be inspired to explore the gifts of their Catholic faith further.

For more information contact: Laura Nowicki 926-8746

There are 18 second collections prescribed by the Archdiocese of Denver annually. We welcome you to give to the ones you choose.

Next week, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and Caribbean, rural terrain and a lack of ministers are obstacles to practicing their faith. Your support to the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, as well as other programs to help share our faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ.

To learn more, please visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

Longest Married Couple Project

The search for longest married couples continues. In addition to honoring the longest married couple for the entire United States, recognition will also be given to a couple from each state and territories who has achieved that distinction. In the case of the United States couple, appropriate gifts will be presented to them at a ceremony to be held at their location during Valentine's week. The state winners will receive personal recognition and a special certificate of achievement during that same time frame from the Worldwide Marriage Encounter movement.

What's New at St. Clare

Our 7th and 8th grade students participated in a Hut Trip on January 11 and 12. They snowshoed back to a hut carrying their packs and had time for fun and spiritual reflection in God's creation.
