Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Story and You

What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us?

Somehow I really resonate with that unclean spirit. You can almost hear the fear, the grasping, the terror the spirit has that the status quo might be upended by The One who, truly, wants our deepest good.

Why is it that when someone new comes into a rehearsal, say, the tension is palpable? Is this new voice going to change the dynamic and sound of the group? (And why, by the way, would we be afraid of that?)

Oh gosh, I can think of so many little corners that I want to keep to myself, and I'm very uncomfortable when the gospel sends Jesus straight into them, challenging me to stop hoarding my time, wondering why I don't have any friends who are disabled, or elderly and sick, or living on the street.

Have you come to destroy me? My little, much-afraid voice can barely squeak out the question as I hide behind my books. Make God go away. That's what I'm praying, but to whom? To the very God who wants to wreak havoc with my comfortable life.

But that's enough about me. Let's talk about YOU (please). Are you trying to protect a disordered relationship with alcohol, or food, or prescription drugs? Are you chasing after relationships with the very people from whom God's grace is actively strengthening you to gain some distance?

Imagine how threatening it would be to have Jesus the Healer walk into a crack house, or a pornography shop, or a sex trafficking ring, and say to the demons that live there, "Quiet! Come out!"

Imagine, indeed.

If you can help us, Thank You for your donation.

If you have questions call Marilyn at 926-1085 and Thanks Again for your help.

Teen Mass First Sunday of the month

Feb 4, March 4

5:30 pm Beaver Creek Chapel

Dinner to follow Mass

Inspired by the life of Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, we invite the teens of the Parishes of the Valley to get involved in their faith with a higher calling. Encouraged to participate in this "special" mass by serving as Extraordinary Minister, lector, cantor, altar server, or simply as an usher by helping with the collection or bringing up the gifts, we hope our young parish members will be inspired to explore the gifts of their Catholic faith further.

What's New at St. Clare

On January 22, St. Clare students joined Vail Christian High School students in their Grace Auditorium for a performance by Afrizo.

A Christian musical group from Daystar University in Kenya, Afrizo exposed our students to the culture of Africa while also teaching them that Jesus came for all people and each culture praises Him in their own language.
