Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Paul sure had a way with words—beautiful, eloquent words. The letter to the church in Ephesus will be read all the way until September, so watch for it every Sunday. It's full of majestic language, and today's section is some of its loveliest. The letter touches on issues and themes that would have affected the growing Church AFTER the martyrdom of St. Paul in the mid-sixties. This, along with many other arguments, has convinced many biblical scholars (but not all) that the actual author was probably a secretary of Paul's, who knew his writing style and the prayerful way he would approach the leadership issues of the late first century.

The letter has always carried Paul's name, however, because ancient writers had no qualms about naming as author the person who inspired the work.

For the earliest Christians, the gospel was one word: peace. But don't feel left out because you weren't alive in those days. Ephesians says, "He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near."

We are the ones who are "far off." Did the writers imagine that, nearly two thousand years later, these words would be read in churches around the world in the summer of 2018? The most singular message of Jesus is still this: peace.

Let this be our "save page" for this summer: a thousand brave rescuers from around the world, working together to lead those twelve boys and their coach out of that cave. That's peace. Can we let that monumental human achievement change us, and elevate us? Of course we can.

What touched you the most as you watched the world come together with a common purpose?

Mission Statement

At Saint Clare of Assisi Catholic School, we live, spread, and celebrate the gospel values of Respect, Responsibility, and Reverence in a Catholic environment. We embrace a challenging, safe, and nurturing environment that enriches the heart, mind, and soul for life.

Open Positions

St. Clare is seeking teachers for the following positions starting in the 2018-2019 academic year:

- Part time after school care
- If interested, please contact the office or principal@stclareparish.com for more information.

Do you have an interest in helping make a St. Clare education possible for families of the Valley? Do you have a CDL and would be willing to help drive a bus to transport children?

St. Clare is exploring options for providing transportation to families. We would need the help of a dedicated person with a CDL to make this possible. If you are interested in helping by driving a bus, please contact Sr. Mary Elisha Glady at principal@stclareparish.com.

Help educate a St. Clare student today!

Tuition Assistance Fund

Cost to Educate: $10,000.00 per student/per school year
Out-of-Parish Rate: $7,200.00 per student/per school year
In-Parish Rate: $4,750.00 per student/per school year

We believe a Catholic Education should be available, accessible and affordable to all children regardless of their socio-economic status. The Tuition Assistance Fund provides this much needed financial assistance for around 50% of our families who desire to provide a quality Catholic education and who would otherwise be unable to afford the full cost of tuition. When you support our Tuition Assistance Fund, you help make up the difference between the annual cost of tuition and what an individual family can afford to pay as scholarships are awarded on a sliding scale to our families in need. Please help our families afford the cost of tuition by donating an amount that is appropriate for you.

Sharing the Gospel for Kids

Have you ever just wanted to be alone for a while? Jesus and his disciples knew what that felt like. They wanted to be alone to talk and rest, but crowds of people were surrounding them. Even when Jesus and his disciples tried to slip away unnoticed, people followed them anyway. They arrived only to find more crowds of people. This was certainly not the quiet time they had planned on. Being patient and kind, Jesus gave up what he wanted, and he began to teach the crowds.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you that Jesus gave up what he wanted, just so he could help other people. Help me to follow his example. Amen.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of Jesus surrounded by large crowds of people.

Mission for the Week

Spend some alone time with Jesus tonight. If you get interrupted because someone else needs help, that's okay. Go help, and then come back to your alone time with Jesus again.

Assurance Statement of compliance with the purposes of Title IX Education Act

The Catholic schools of the Archdiocese, under the jurisdiction of the Archbishop, and at the direction of the Superintendent, attest that none of the Catholic schools discriminates on the basis of sex in its admission policies, its treatment of students or its employment practices.

Non-Discrimination Statement

The Catholic schools of the Archdiocese of Denver, under the jurisdiction of Archbishop Samuel J. Aquila, S.T.L. and at the direction of the Superintendent, state that all of their Catholic schools admit students of any race, color, national or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the schools. Furthermore,

Archdiocesan schools admit handicapped students in accord with the policy on Admissions in the Archdiocese of Denver Catholic Schools Administrator's Manual. These schools do not discriminate on the basis of race, age, handicap, color, national or ethnic origin in the administration of their educational policies, employment practices, scholarship and loan programs, or athletic or other school-administered programs.
