Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We saw a film the other night that I hope will stay with me for the rest of my life. It's not available in theatres, but if your diocese offers it as a one-night event, as ours did, do everything you can to get there.

"Outcasts" is a documentary about the work of Franciscan priests in the utterly most broken places on earth. It begins in an AIDS clinic in the Bronx, and follows their work in the slums of Ireland, England, and Honduras. It's in Honduras that the true courage of their work is most visible, for they minister in the very prison where 330 men died in the Comayagua fire of 2012.

The inmates openly carry weapons in this prison. Despair, rage, and fear are in the eyes of these poor souls. One fifteen-year-old orphan is incarcerated there because he stole for food.

"I ask myself all the time why I want to be in Honduras," one of the friars says. "And the only answer I have is that Jesus wants to be in Honduras." Jesus wants to be wherever we are, and in most parts of the world that means Jesus is with the hungry. "The hand of the Lord feeds us," says the psalmist today (145). And the hand that the Lord uses to feed the world is yours and mine.

Both scripture stories today, separated by at least seven hundred years, feature the same human experience. People are hungry, and the one sent by God knows how to feed them so they hunger no more. The deepest hunger, said St. Teresa of Calcutta, is for love.

Good news! We can fix that hunger today.

How will you love intensely in order to curb the deepest hunger?

The Reception of Communion

The person distributing Communion says audibly to each person approaching, "The Body of Christ." The communicant should audibly respond, "Amen," indicating by that response his or her belief that this small wafer of bread, the wine in this chalice are in reality the body and blood of Christ the Lord. When one receives from the chalice, the same proclamation is made by the person distributing Communion and the Communicant again responds, "Amen." In the United States, the body of Bishops determined that Communion should be received standing, and that a bow is the act of reverence made by those receiving. It should be noted that it is never permissible for a person to dip the host he or she has received into the chalice. If, for some reason, the communicant is not able or willing to drink from the cup then that person should receive only under the form of bread.

Mission Statement

Open Positions

St. Clare is seeking teachers for the following positions starting in the 2018-2019 academic year:

- Part time after school care
- If interested, please contact the office or principal@stclareparish.com for more information.

Do you have an interest in helping make a St. Clare education possible for families of the Valley? Do you have a CDL and would be willing to help drive a bus to transport children?

St. Clare is exploring options for providing transportation to families. We would need the help of a dedicated person with a CDL to make this possible. If you are interested in helping by driving a bus, please contact Sr. Mary Elisha Glady at principal@stclareparish.com.

Help educate a St. Clare student today!

Tuition Assistance Fund

Cost to Educate: $10,000.00 per student/per school year
Out-of-Parish Rate: $7,200.00 per student/per school year
In-Parish Rate: $4,750.00 per student/per school year

We believe a Catholic Education should be available, accessible and affordable to all children regardless of their socio-economic status. The Tuition Assistance Fund provides this much needed financial assistance for around 50% of our families who desire to provide a quality Catholic education and who would otherwise be unable to afford the full cost of tuition. When you support our Tuition Assistance Fund, you help make up the difference between the annual cost of tuition and what an individual family can afford to pay as scholarships are awarded on a sliding scale to our families in need. Please help our families afford the cost of tuition by donating an amount that is appropriate for you.
