Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

It was even more dangerous to be a child in the ancient world than it is today. The infant mortality rate was huge, and if you made it to your first birthday you still had to survive the many calamities that still plague children today. Think back on your own childhood. What accidents or illnesses might have proved fatal without modern medicine?

In times of food scarcity children were the last to be fed—first the boys, and, finally, the girls. In some Middle Eastern cultures, children were sacrificed to the gods in order to ensure good harvests, and rain. That little child whom Jesus called over had already beaten the odds a million times.

It was the very low economic and social status of children that Jesus was pointing out to his disciples. Here's this child, he seems to say. Take a good look. When you serve a child, you serve me. That must have been incomprehensible to those who had followed Jesus for hundreds of miles, in deserts and on lakes, because of his great charisma and warmth. He had much higher status than a child, didn't he?

If you're like me, I'll bet your friends are popular, attractive, accomplished. As I survey my own "contacts," I have to honestly admit that I don't have any friends who have severe mental challenges. I don't have any friends who are in prison, or who live on the street.

It's not that I haven't had the time to make these friends. I somehow found the time, after all, to cultivate the friends I have. Notice the ones you never notice, says Jesus. There I am, in the midst of them.

Who is the person you've been trying not to notice?

Bible Study

St. Mary's will soon be starting a weekly, hour-long Bible study to be held at the Castle Peak Health Center. We are looking for men and women interested in being participants or leaders for a Wednesday afternoon Bible study.

Join us for a trial run on Wednesday, October 3rd at 3:15 in St. Mary's basement. Questions, contact Susan Baker at 328-0861.

Gregorian Chant Appreciation Group

The purpose would be to learn, admire, and participate in one of the great musical traditions of the Catholic Church. Each meeting would consist of looking at and singing a small selection of chant while engaging with what makes chant different from other musical forms. Snacks and drinks would follow which I will supply. The estimated time would be 45-60 minutes a meeting.

Neither experience nor talent is necessary and, although this is geared toward adults, bringing your children is encouraged.

Meetings would be held at 7:00pm on the last Wednesday of every month at 62 Old County Lane, Edwards. If you are interested, please contact me via email at stephen.lajoie@gmail.com or speak to me in person.

Tuition Assistance Fund

Cost to Educate: $10,000.00 per student/per school year
Out-of-Parish Rate: $7,200.00 per student/per school year
In-Parish Rate: $4,750.00 per student/per school year

We believe a Catholic Education should be available, accessible and affordable to all children regardless of their socio-economic status. The Tuition Assistance Fund provides this much needed financial assistance for around 50% of our families who desire to provide a quality Catholic education and who would otherwise be unable to afford the full cost of tuition. When you support our Tuition Assistance Fund, you help make up the difference between the annual cost of tuition and what an individual family can afford to pay as scholarships are awarded on a sliding scale to our families in need. Please help our families afford the cost of tuition by donating an amount that is appropriate for you.
