Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wouldn't it be awesome if men had one fewer rib than women? We could think of that every time we got stuck reading scripture, wondering what to take literally or not. Whew! We can trust the bible, because Genesis says God took a rib from Adam and used it to form Eve!

Alas, except in the case of disease, men and women each have twelve pairs of ribs, so there goes that theory. The sacred writer, of course, wasn't teaching anatomy, but a Master's class in God's wisdom in creating men and women from each other, connecting them just under the heart. Lovely.

Now, there are some fascinating moments in Genesis that make us shake our heads in wonder. How, for example, did the ancient writer know that snakes used to have legs? It's true. Over a hundred million years ago snakes used to be able to walk AND slither. They lost their legs at some point, but that was surely several million years before the author of Genesis (writing a mere 3,000 years ago) recalled God telling the duplicitous serpent, "Because you have done this...on your belly you shall crawl" (3:14).

The ancients were far, far more in tune with the natural world than we are. It's possible that dead snakes made for riveting investigations. Perhaps the tiny vestiges of legs (called spurs) led them to rightly surmise that, in the Garden of Eden, snakes had legs. Fascinating. And icky.

The first eleven chapters of Genesis give us the Garden, the Fall, and the Great Flood. From the very beginning, God was luring us with stories that are more eternal than any science.

What is your favorite Genesis story?

Tuition Assistance Fund

Cost to Educate: $10,000.00 per student/per school year
 Out-of-Parish Rate: $7,200.00 per student/per school year
 In-Parish Rate: $4,750.00 per student/per school year

We believe a Catholic Education should be available, accessible and affordable to all children regardless of their socio-economic status. The Tuition Assistance Fund provides this much needed financial assistance for around 50% of our families who desire to provide a quality Catholic education and who would otherwise be unable to afford the full cost of tuition. When you support our Tuition Assistance Fund, you help make up the difference between the annual cost of tuition and what an individual family can afford to pay as scholarships are awarded on a sliding scale to our families in need. Please help our families afford the cost of tuition by donating an amount that is appropriate for you.
