St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen..

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The other day I was scrolling through the photos on my phone. I'd forgotten that I'd taken pictures of our backyard urban garden last year. There, in still life, stood cold and dreary January. But the next picture opened up another world: the hoeing and planting, and the beautiful rows and rows of the tiny greens of May. And then, with just a click, there they were: thousands of lush, plump red tomatoes, ready for harvest, ready for their destination at food banks around town. Yum.

My favorite photo is one the day before our big freeze last month. Their baskets overflowing, the gardeners left a few hundred yellow and green and red tomatoes in a bucket on our porch, ready to be taken away as soon as they had room in their overflowing truck.

It's the last picture that's so stunning, though. Just a week after the frost, our backyard morphed from the Garden of Eden into a Halloween ghost town. Dead, sad branches moaned. Lifeless, leafless plants bent over into sad farewell. And there it all was, right there, on a phone I'd been ignoring for years. Life and death are accessible to me now, every time I click "Photos."

That's what this 33rd Sunday has always been about. We are ordered to open our hearts to the life and death we each carry deep in our hearts. Yes, winter is upon us, and we know not the day nor hour when we will see Jesus.

But here's the good news. Jesus is Lord of the summer and the winter. Bidden or unbidden, death awaits us all. Our job is to keep planting, and harvesting, and waiting in joyful hope.

How do you hold life and death deep in your heart?

Gregorian Chant Appreciation Group

The purpose would be to learn, admire, and participate in one of the great musical traditions of the Catholic Church. Each meeting would consist of looking at and singing a small selection of chant while engaging with what makes chant different from other musical forms. Snacks and drinks would follow which I will supply. The estimated time would be 45-60 minutes a meeting. Meetings would be held at 7:00pm on the last Wednesday of every month at 62 Old County Lane, Edwards.

If you are interested, please contact me via email at stephen.lajoie@gmail.com or speak to me in person.

Thank you for your support and generosity!

Please be generous in this week's second collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, one in seven people lives in poverty. With this collection you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those who are struggling across the country. In addition, 25 percent of funds collected remains in our diocese to fund local anti-poverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

There are 18 second collections prescribed by the Archdiocese of Denver annually. We welcome you to give to the ones you choose.

Reflexión (San Marcos 13, 24-32).

Se acerca el fin del año litúrgico. Por eso, los textos bíblicos de hoy nos hablan, como todos los años, de la vuelta gloriosa de Cristo, del fin del mundo, del juicio universal. Estas promesas entusiasman a los primeros cristianos. Era esta fe, esta espera activa, la que impresionaba a sus contemporáneos. Porque aquellos cristianos no vivían como los demás, es decir, como gente sin esperanza.

¿Y nosotros? La verdad es que muchos de nosotros no se sienten familiarizados con estos pensamientos. Nosotros no nos sentimos ni animados con estas promesas, ni inquietados por estas amenazas tan lejanas. Pocos de nosotros alimentan su vida religiosa con estos pensamientos. Sin embargo, estos sucesos tendrán lugar, algún día:

- o Es cuestión de fe que Nuestro Señor ha de volver;
- o Es cuestión de fe que este mundo tendrá fin;
- o Es cuestión de fe que todos nosotros seremos juzgados.

Se puede dividir a los cristianos de nuestro tiempo en dos categorías, según su actitud frente a estos grandes sucesos que nos revela la fe.

1. Los que no esperan nada.
2. Los que esperan la vuelta del Señor

Queridos hermanos, hoy el Señor nos invita a hacer un acto de fe en su victoria eterna y definitiva y, a convertirnos en colaboradores incansables en su Reino. ¡No rechacemos esta invitación del Señor del mundo!

Sobre de nuestra virgen madre:

La Virgen de Guadalupe es muy importante para la fe de todos los mexicanos, pues en ella nuestra Madre del Cielo manifestó claramente su amor de predilección por este pueblo, dejando un hermoso mensaje lleno de ternura y dejando su imagen grabada en un ayate como muestra de su amor.

El sábado 9 de Diciembre de 1531, cuando Juan Diego pasaba por el Cerro del Tepeyac para llegar a Tlatelolco, escuchó el canto de muchos pájaros y una voz que le decía: "Juanito, el más pequeño de mis hijos, ¿a dónde vas?". Al voltear Juan Diego vio una Señora muy hermosa.

La Señora le dijo: "Yo soy la siempre Virgen Santa María, Madre del verdadero Dios. He venido hasta aquí para decirte que quiero que se me construya un templo aquí, para mostrar y dar mi amor y auxilio a todos ustedes"...

Servidores del Altar (Monaguillos)

El pasado domingo 11 de Noviembre, el Padre Jose María le dió una bendición especial a los monaguillos y después de la Misa convivieron todos con sus familias.

Dios los siga impulsando al servicio de la comunidad de Santa Clara de Asís en Edwards CO.

Help educate a St. Clare student today!
Tuition Assistance Fund

Cost to Educate: $10,000 per student/per year
Out-of-Parish Rate: $7,200 per student/per year
In-Parish Rate: $4,750 per student/per year

We believe a Catholic Education should be available, accessible and affordable to all children regardless of their socio-economic status. The Tuition Assistance Fund provides this much needed financial assistance for around 50% of our families who desire to provide a quality Catholic education and who would otherwise be unable to afford the full cost of tuition. When you support our Tuition Assistance Fund, you help make up the difference between the annual cost of tuition and what an individual family can afford to pay as scholarships are awarded on a sliding scale to our families in need. Please help our families afford the cost of tuition by donating an amount that is appropriate for you.

Thank You

Thank you

Thank you to all who participated in the St. Clare Wine Tasting to make it a success! All of your contributions benefit the students through a new reading curriculum, professional development for teachers, updating the gym, a new sign for the entrance, and the general operating expenses of St. Clare.

A special thank you to Sarah Millett and Emily DeDionisio for their work organizing the event as well as all of our sponsors.

Thank You

Thank you to Steve and Nicole Clemins for their generous donation of a new dishwasher with installation to the St. Clare kitchen! The school and parish communities both enjoy and appreciate having a working dishwasher.

Join us for a basketball game!

What's New at St. Clare

Fifth grade students asked veterans questions about their time in the service for the whole school community to learn more about life in the military.

Fourth grade decorated our sidewalks and welcomed veterans for our annual Veteran's Day program on November 12.

Assurance Statement of compliance with the purposes of Title IX Education Act

The Catholic schools of the Archdiocese, under the jurisdiction of the Archbishop, and at the direction of the Superintendent, attest that none of the Catholic schools discriminates on the basis of sex in its admission policies, its treatment of students or its employment practices.

Non-Discrimination Statement

The Catholic schools of the Archdiocese of Denver, under the jurisdiction of Archbishop Samuel J. Aquila, S.T.L. and at the direction of the Superintendent, state that all of their Catholic schools admit students of any race, color, national or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the schools. Furthermore, Archdiocesan schools admit disabled students in accord with the policy on Admissions in the Archdiocese of Denver Catholic Schools Administrator's Manual. These schools do not discriminate on the basis of race, age, disability, color, and national or ethnic origin in the administration of their educational policies, employment practices, scholarship and loan programs, athletic or other school-administered programs.
