First Sunday of Advent

Today's world has a lot of advantages over that of years ago. Take waiting, for example. Before huge cineplexes in every neighborhood we used to actually have to buy tickets in advance, or wait in long lines for seats to movie openings. Remember Star Wars, anyone? Or, in more recent memory, the long wait for the next Harry Potter book?

On the other hand, it's good to muster the discipline for some kind of delayed gratification in life. Painful as it was, waiting for the bus, or for a favorite tv show to return after the long summer break, formed a certain character in us. I call on that character all the time, when I'm waiting for a medication to work, maybe, or waiting for test results from the doctor.

I'll bet you have daily challenges to that essential character trait too. Are you waiting for those painful pounds to come off—they will, I promise—or for news from a loved one who is deployed, or hospitalized, or just missing from your life? That kind of waiting is just agonizing.

Or maybe your long wait is to overcome a resentment that's had you in its grasp for decades. More likely, your wait is for healing for a child who is in the grip of depression, or an addiction, or has problems at school. That's the most agonizing wait of all.

I have an idea. How about if, this Advent, every reader of this column around the country prayed for someone who is reading these words right now? Talk about waiting. We won't know until we see Jesus who we were praying for, and who was praying for us. Ready? I can't wait.

How would you like your unknown prayer partner to pray for you?

PRIMER DOMINGO de Adviento

EVANGELIO DE HOY (San Juan 18, 33-37)

OBJETIVO

Renovar nuestra decisión de luchar por Cristo en la Iglesia católica que tiene como fin establecer el Reino de Cristo en la sociedad, por todos los medios lícitos, buenos y evangélicos, y así todos los hombres reconozcan la soberanía de Cristo sobre sus vidas y le tengan como Supremo Jefe.

PETICIÓN

Señor Jesús, Rey Supremo de nuestra Iglesia, ayúdanos a batallar incansablemente por llevar tu mensaje de salvación a todos los hombres, nuestros hermanos; que no nos quedemos tranquilos hasta ver que tú reinas en todos los rincones de este mundo, en cada familia y en cada corazón humano. Permítenos ser soldados de primera fila y nunca permitas que traicionemos o ensuciamos tu bandera con nuestro comportamiento, con nuestras palabras y nuestras acciones.

II. REFLEXIÓN PERSONAL

1. ¿A qué te compromete esta fiesta de Cristo Rey?
2. ¿Estás contento de luchar en el ejército de Cristo, con todo lo que eso supone: disponibilidad, generosidad, valentía, decisión, trabajo constante, renunciaciones? ¿O preferirías un ejército de Cristo más fácil y placentero, menos exigente?
3. ¿Qué rasgos te impresionan más de la fisonomía de Rey Cristo? ¿Por qué?
4. ¿Realmente te apena y te entristece de que en muchos lugares, en muchas escuelas, en muchas familias y en muchos corazones, todavía Cristo no reina? ¿Qué haces para solucionar este problema?
5. ¿Reina ya Cristo en tu inteligencia, es decir, vives con una fe firme, sin dudas, sin vacilaciones y capaz de iluminar tu vida como una antorcha, como una luz?
6. ¿Reina ya Cristo en tu corazón, por el amor y la caridad verdadera hacia todos los hombres, que es mucho más que la mera filantropía y sentimentalismo horizontal?

Sobre nuestra virgin madre:

La Virgen de Guadalupe es muy importante para la fe de todos los mexicanos, pues en ella nuestra Madre del Cielo manifestó claramente su amor de predilección por este pueblo, dejando un hermoso mensaje lleno de ternura y dejando su imagen grabada en un ayate como muestra de su amor.

El sábado 9 de Diciembre de 1531, cuando Juan Diego pasaba por el Cerro del Tepeyac para llegar a Tlatelolco, escuchó el canto de muchos pájaros y una voz que le decía: "Juanito, el más pequeño de mis hijos, ¿a dónde vas?". Al voltear Juan Diego vio una Señora muy hermosa.

La Señora le dijo: "Yo soy la siempre Virgen Santa María, Madre del verdadero Dios. He venido hasta aquí para decirte que quiero que se me construya un templo aquí, para mostrar y dar mi amor y auxilio a todos ustedes"...

The Advent Wreath

The Advent wreath is perhaps the most common Advent symbol, and is also one of the most popular Advent traditions for the home. Each part of the Advent wreath symbolizes our spiritual preparation for the birth of the world's Messiah, Jesus Christ, on Christmas day: the circular shape of the Advent wreath symbolizes eternal life; the purple Advent candles symbolize our repentance and waiting; the pink Advent candle symbolizes our joy of Christmas coming soon, only one week away. Each of the four candles represents the 4,000 years of waiting for the coming of the promised Messiah, from Adam and Eve in the Old Testament up to the time of St. Joseph and Mary in the New Testament. One candle is lit on each Sunday of Advent, often accompanied by a special prayer and Scripture readings that go along with the meaning of each week. Sometimes a fifth white candle is added, often called the "Christ candle" that is lit on Christmas day. Together, the soft candlelight rising from the Advent candles symbolize the coming of Jesus as "The Light of the World."

What's New at St. Clare

As part of their Social Studies curriculum, the 3rd grade did a play of the story of the Mayflower and the first Thanksgiving. Afterwards, they each shared what they are grateful for and enjoyed a Thanksgiving meal.

Students participated in our school-wide poetry recitation on November 20. Students studied and memorized a poem and then had the opportunity to present it to the school community.
