St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

The celebration of the Fourth Sunday of Advent is an important part of our liturgical year and our preparation for Christmas. This year, the Fourth Sunday in Advent falls on December 23 Catholics are obligated to celebrate Mass for both the Fourth Sunday in Advent and Christmas. Please plan your schedule accordingly.

To view the Christmas Mass Schedule at Saint Patrick and Vail go to <http://saintpatrickminturn.com>

Second Sunday of Advent

That's quite a migrant caravan, those tens of millions of people who, rejoicing that they have been "remembered by God," will return to Jerusalem "borne aloft in glory." Let's see. There would be the thousands deported out of Israel by the Assyrians (722 BC). Following them would be the hundreds of thousands "led on foot by their enemies "out of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar (597- 587 BC.). Next, the millions expelled from, and denied access to, Jerusalem by the Romans (132 AD).

And that's just the Hebrew people, in the short window of time between the Assyrian invasion and the final deportation by the Romans. Can we begin to imagine the numbers of human beings who have been driven off their land, robbed and naked, and forced to begin again in a foreign land among foreign peoples?

Such has been the way of the world throughout history. Misery begets misery. The Palestinian Christians, who have lived in the land of Jesus' birth for two thousand years, have been bullied and harassed by both of the larger ethnic groups—themselves the victims of unparalleled suffering— so much that, today, they make up less than 2% of the population.

All those refugees shall return one day, says the prophet Baruch. That's a lot of mountains that need lowering, a lot of ancient gorges that need to be lifted up. That's a huge workload for every believer, the gigantic and prophetic task of building lasting peace in the world. Come, Lord Jesus.

What losses of your own will be restored when Jesus comes again in glory?

Gregorian Chant Appreciation Group

The purpose would be to learn, admire, and participate in one of the great musical traditions of the Catholic Church. Each meeting would consist of looking at and singing a small selection of chant while engaging with what makes chant different from other musical forms. Snacks and drinks would follow which I will supply. The estimated time would be 45-60 minutes a meeting. Meetings would be held at 7:00pm on the last Wednesday of every month at 62 Old County Lane, Edwards.

If you are interested, please contact me via email at stephen.lajoie@gmail.com or speak to me in person.

Substitute Teachers Needed

Do you have an interest and experience working with children? Do you have a flexible schedule? St. Clare is looking for substitute teachers. If interested, please contact Gina in the office at admin@stclareparish.com

Help Needed

A school family is in need of additional monetary support this Christmas season due to extraordinary family circumstances resulting in a financial strain. Christmas can be such a joyful time for children and adults alike, yet financial hardships can dampen the spirit of joy that the birth of our Savior brings. If you would like to support this family, please contact with Marilyn Brock by December 14. Thank you.

The Advent Candles

The Advent candles readily demonstrate the strong contrast between darkness and light. In the Bible, Christ is referred to as the "Light of the World" contrasted with the darkness of sin. Human history spanned long ages before our prophesied Savior would finally make his appearance, and God's promise to make all things new through him.

Throughout the weeks of Advent, or "coming," as the coming of Jesus draws nearer another candle is lit, with each candle dispelling the darkness a little more. Thus, the Advent wreath helps us to spiritually contemplate the great drama of salvation history that surrounds the birth of God Incarnate who comes to redeem the human race.

Assurance Statement of compliance with the purposes of Title IX Education Act

The Catholic schools of the Archdiocese, under the jurisdiction of the Archbishop, and at the direction of the Superintendent, attest that none of the Catholic schools discriminates on the basis of sex in its admission policies, its treatment of students or its employment practices.

Non-Discrimination Statement

The Catholic schools of the Archdiocese of Denver, under the jurisdiction of Archbishop Samuel J. Aquila, S.T.L. and at the direction of the Superintendent, state that all of their Catholic schools admit students of any race, color, national or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the schools. Furthermore, Archdiocesan schools admit disabled students in accord with the policy on Admissions in the Archdiocese of Denver Catholic Schools Administrator's Manual. These schools do not discriminate on the basis of race, age, disability, color, and national or ethnic origin in the administration of their educational policies, employment practices, scholarship and loan programs, athletic or other school-administered programs.
