St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Fun Service Opportunity for Adults

Bring enjoyment to area seniors by occasionally joining an informal Bible study at Castle Peak Senior Life and Rehabilitation in Eagle. We meet on Wednesdays at 1:00 PM in room A109 beginning Nov. 7th. Come once or every week to share in learning about our Gospel readings while befriending residents in assisted living, rehab, etc. For more info on this new Catholic outreach, call Sue Baker at 328-0861

Gregorian Chant Appreciation Group

The purpose would be to learn, admire, and participate in one of the great musical traditions of the Catholic Church. Each meeting would consist of looking at and singing a small selection of chant while engaging with what makes chant different from other musical forms. Snacks and drinks would follow which I will supply. The estimated time would be 45-60 minutes a meeting. Meetings would be held at 7:00pm on the last Wednesday of every month at 62 Old County Lane, Edwards. If you are interested, please contact me via email at stephen.lajoie@gmail.com or speak to me in person.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

There's a bit of an elephant in the room as Ezra reads that foundational scripture to the men, women, and children old enough to understand. What none of them is admitting is that, after returning to the land from the Babylonian Exile, things haven't worked out as well as they had hoped.

Their new Temple is puny compared to the majestic Temple that Solomon built (and Nebuchadnezzar burned). The returnees are dwelling in a desolate, undefended city, tilling a few ravaged fields, easy prey for marauding bandits.

When Ezra reads this document (now called the Torah), their response is to hang their heads and weep. And what does Governor Nehemiah do? He interrupts to declare a holiday, and to exhort them to eat and drink and rejoice. Why? Because he knows what they have forgotten: the joy of the Lord is their strength. Nothing less will ever be enough. In today's synagogue services there is a stirring moment. After the sacred readings, the homily, and the singing of the psalms, a spotlight is shone on the tabernacle. Those with the priestly last name of Cohen (or Kohen) come forward. This group, with the rabbi, takes the five dazzling Torah scrolls and begins to dance with them. And then all heaven breaks out. The children leap up to dance with their parents. Joyous groups jump out of their pew to greet the Torah as it passes by. For a raucous few minutes the sedate assembly exults in the joy of Torah. Another week of hard work looms for all, but on the Sabbath they draw deeply from their greatest strength, which is the joy that only comes from intimacy with God.

In what ways is the joy of the Lord your greatest strength?

Collection for the Church in Latin America

This week, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support to the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ.

To learn more about how you can make a difference, please visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.
