Please join in praying the St. Michael the Archangel prayer after every Mass.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Second Sunday of Advent

That blissful scene of the Peaceable Kingdom (Isaiah 11:1-11) often brings to mind that question from James (4:1): Where do the wars and conflicts among you originate?

Scrolling the multiple advice columns crowding the internet these days, I'm astounded at the indulgence of so many family members just dropping out of the lives of their parents and siblings because they can't take the "toxic presence" of somebody. Even more vicious is the ever-increasing use of beloved grandchildren to get back at grandparents with whom one or the other parent has a feud.

That's it, says the powerful adult child, you'll never see your grandchild again. And away they go, off to solitary holiday meals, marinating in the bitter juices of sweet revenge.

I hope it goes without saying that some estrangements are crucial for the mental health and safety of family members. Addictions can certainly take their toll as well. That said, I have friends who have followed their estranged siblings into the jaws of hell in order to bring them back from their sadness and isolation. Even more inspiring, I know people who have actually searched their souls and discovered that the problems were, indeed, their fault. They admitted them to their children, and asked forgiveness.

Sometimes that's not enough. It's delicious to obsess over past hurts, and a humble and heartfelt apology spoils the fun. Many parents suffering estrangement simply can't get their kids to answer the phone (or, okay, a text). Maybe there is a long history of distrust. But the lamb has a lot of reasons to distrust the wolf, and Isaiah says it's a sign of the presence of the Kingdom that even that can be healed.

How are you acting to be reconciled with someone?

Homes for Christmas

An Advent project to provide homes for poor Haitian families

More than 2,000 years ago, the Savior of the world was born in a manger with no comfortable or safe place to lay his head.

Today, there are thousands of Haitian families who suffer the same fate. They have no place to lay their heads but a dirt floor, surrounded by stick-and-mud walls, which provides no protection from rain or threats from the outside world.

Cross Catholic Outreach provides safe, durable homes for poor Haitian families. We are thankful for your compassion and generosity to provide support for the work of the Kobonal Haiti Mission, which is striving to improve the lives of needy families through both material and spiritual support.

For more information go to CrossCatholic.org/Advent or call 800-914-2420 ext. 158

Fun Service Opportunity for Adults

Bring enjoyment to area seniors by occasionally joining an informal Bible study at Castle Peak Senior Life and Rehabilitation in Eagle. We meet on Wednesdays at 1:00 PM in room A109. Come once or every week to share in learning about our Gospel readings while befriending residents in assisted living, rehab, etc. For more info on this new Catholic outreach, call Sue Baker at 328-0861

Mission Statement

At Saint Clare of Assisi Catholic School, we live, spread, and celebrate the gospel values of Respect, Responsibility, and Reverence in a Catholic environment. We embrace a challenging, safe, and nurturing environment that enriches the heart, mind, and soul for life.

Advent Entrance Antiphon: Week 2

The purpose of the entrance antiphon in each Mass is to "open the celebration, foster the unity of those who have been gathered, introduce their thoughts to the mystery of the liturgical season or festivity, and accompany the procession of the priest and ministers" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, ¶47). We can learn about each Sunday of Advent by praying with the entrance antiphon for that day. The entrance antiphon for the Second Sunday of Advent is:

O people of Sion, behold, the Lord will come to save the nations, and the Lord will make the glory of his voice heard in the joy of your heart.

Join us for the St. Clare Catholic School Christmas pageant as the students tell the story of the birth of Jesus through vocal and instrumental music pieces as well as acting.

Tuesday, December 17

Vilar Center, Beaver Creek

Doors Open at 6pm, performance at 6:30pm

Free performance, all are welcome.

Employment Opportunities

BelieveSCA 2019 Annual Appeal

How many of you can think of a person in your life that has received a Catholic education? Many of the closest people in my life have benefited from a Catholic education. When I think of all the people I know who have either worked at Catholic schools or been formed in them, it is easy to see the profound impact a Catholic school can have on a community.

Considering this impact, it is all the more clear that we must do whatever we can to help support our local Catholic school. St. Clare of Assisi consistently strives to provide children with the academic and moral tools to be Catholic leaders in our society. As we continue on with our BelieveSCA 2019 Appeal, I have been absolutely struck by how generous and loving our community can be.

Yet, I know that there is still much more to be done. As of December 3rd, we have already raised about $16,000 of our $200,000 goal! Let us keep going strong as we continue through this Advent season. If you feel drawn to supporting our mission of Catholic education, there are envelopes in the back of each church or see additional options for donating below.

Join us in praying for a successful completion of our Believe SCA 2019 Annual Appeal.

God Bless!
