Please join in praying the St. Michael the Archangel prayer after every Mass.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Please sign up for FLOCKNOTE to help us communicate with you. To join text THEVALLEY to 84576 from your cell phone and then follow the prompts. If you would like some help getting signed up please contact the parish office.

Mass Guidelines

All other areas of the Church will be closed for public safety, including the Restrooms. We ask that everyone while attending Mass respect a social distance of 6 feet and please wear a mask. Certain pews will be closed off and seating areas will be marked with an "X" to show where to sit. If you are a family unit, feel free to sit together. We will also ask everyone to help in cleaning down their areas after the Mass is over. Cleaning supplies will be provided for this task. There should be no congregating inside the building after Mass and we ask that everyone stay away from the Sacristy. It is important that we take this journey slowly and safely.

Rest assured that we are doing everything we can in order to make this as safe as possible for you, our Parish.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

St. Mary's, Eagle

Mondays at St. Mary's from 5:30 to 6:30 pm

This is a powerful prayer opportunity and when a priest is with us, we also have Benediction or a blessing with the Blessed Sacrament, and Confession is available. Come and stay as long as you can.

Men gather on the second Saturday of each month after the 7:00 p.m. Mass. Women meet on the third Saturday of each month, after the Mass of 7:00 p.m.

The Story and You™

Sacred Conversations

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Here's the problem: how do we love God more than any of our earthly loves---parents, spouses, children---when God became flesh and dwelt among us? In other words, we've learned to love the God who "has flesh on." Because of the Incarnation, we see Christ in other people, and in the working of the Holy Spirit in the world.

How, then, do we hold the love we have for God in a higher place than the love we have for the people in whom we find God? I might have a small idea, and it had to do with one of the shattering effects of the quarantining we have all experienced.

It turns out that too much togetherness for some unions has exposed the weaknesses that have existed from the beginning, but were put mightily to the test when there was no outside distraction. I read about these tensions because I have way too much time to waste on the internet.

It seems like the basic (and hardest) skills of daily forgiveness and forbearance, which the Church tries hard to provide not only in the sacraments but in the required Marriage Preparation, have never been truly exercised. Couples who have counted themselves as "happy" are now helpless against the stresses of confined living, because they've never practiced truly talking to each other.

I am grateful every day for the skills we learned as kids, growing up in daily Catholic life. We learned to share (when we REALLY didn't want to). We learned not to roll our eyes and walk away when there was a disagreement, but to do the hard work of really listening.

By dying to ourselves we get that delicious abundant life that comes from loving God first.

In what ways has the quarantine called up in you some of the skills you've learned in your life?

CONSIDERACIONES LITÚRGICAS

- El Arzobispo de Denver emitió un decreto, que significa un regla A SEGUIR, la cual nos menciona dos puntos muy importantes: "Además decreto que la Sagrada Comunión se distribuirá solo bajo la especie de pan, sin ofrecer el cáliz a los fieles"
Además decreto que la Sagrada Comunión se distribuirá solo en la mano durante este período de tiempo debido al peligro de transmitir el Corona-virus a través de la recepción en la lengua.

OTRAS CONSIDERACIONES IMPORTANTES

- Las personas que asistan a una misa pública deberán: usar cubre bocas durante el tiempo que este en la celebración Eucarística, evitar el contacto innecesario con las superficies, respetar el distanciamiento social, usar desinfectante para las manos cuando esté disponible, seguir las normas para saber dónde sentarse en la iglesia, en el gimnasio o afuera, y quedarse en casa si están enfermos o tienen síntomas.
- Niños. Las personas que asistan a misa con niños se deberán asegurar de que los niños mayores de 3 años lleven cubre bocas, que entiendan que no deben quitársela y que sepan observar las normas de distanciamiento social.
- Durante este tiempo de pandemia, solo se pueden utilizar las áreas en donde se celebra la Santa Misa, NO se podrán utilizar otras áreas del edificio, para socializar (pasillos, foyers, cocina, oficinas, etc.) y esto también incluye el uso de los baños.
No habrá obligación de domingo o días de precepto. Los fieles han sido dispensados de su obligación a asistir a misa los domingos o los días de precepto hasta nuevo aviso, seguiremos transmitiendo nuestras misas diarias y dominicales vía YouTube, para aquellos que no puedan o logren asistir a misa presencial.

A big THANK YOU to everyone who contributed to our Easter Appeal in response to CoVid-19. While we do not know what is ahead for the economy, the nation, and our community; we do appreciate your willingness to give during such turbulent times! It is a sign of true generosity that our community steps right up to the plate. In an effort to provide you with a clearer picture of the school and parish outlook, we are compiling data on both our recent appeal and our offertory. Please keep us in your prayers as we go forward. I hope that everyone is staying healthy and know that you are all in our prayers!

Thank you again and God Bless!

Why Catholic Education Still Matters

An Incarnational View of the World

Catholic School students learn that God is present and active in their lives and in the world. They learn to recognize the "footprints of God" in their daily experiences, especially in the midst of life's challenges. They develop a sense of "sacramental awareness". They see the signs of God's love around them, and become instruments of God's grace in their own neighborhoods, communities and the world. In an incarnational view of the world, there is no such thing as a secular subject as all learning helps to develop and bring to full bloom that image of God that is in each person.

Sharing the Gospel

Welcome people to your home, school, and church. Offer visitors a cup of water, tea, coffee, or juice. Share your food with those who are hungry. Share your clothing with those who need clothing. Find shelter for the homeless. Pray for the sick. When disaster strikes, help people rebuild. When you welcome others, you welcome Jesus Christ. What you do for others, you do for God.

Prayer

Lord, thank you for giving me water to drink when I am thirsty.

Something to Draw

Draw you and your family at church collecting food and drinks for the homeless.

Mission for the Week

I will give my parents a cup of cool water when they are tired.

Assurance Statement of compliance with the purposes of Title IX Education Act

The Catholic schools of the Archdiocese, under the jurisdiction of the Archbishop, and at the direction of the Superintendent, attest that none of the Catholic schools discriminates on the basis of sex in its admission policies, its treatment of students or its employment practices.

Non-Discrimination Statement

The Catholic schools of the Archdiocese of Denver, under the jurisdiction of Archbishop Samuel J. Aquila, S.T.L. and at the direction of the Superintendent, state that all of their Catholic schools admit students of any race, color, national or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the schools. Furthermore, Archdiocesan schools admit disabled students in accord with the policy on Admissions in the Archdiocese of Denver Catholic Schools Administrator's Manual. These schools do not discriminate on the basis of race, age, disability, color, and national or ethnic origin in the administration of their educational policies, employment practices, scholarship and loan programs, athletic or other school-administered programs.
